Hybrid Rhododendrons

Puget Sound Grown

Evergreen Rhododendrons give more value per dollar invested in beautifying the home and increase in value and beauty. They adapt themselves to all locations, formal gardens or woodland glade, small or large home, by proper selection of variety. The ideal evergreen for the Pacific Northwest. Vigorous growth and root system of our plants insure against failure.

Hybrid Rhododendron Seedlings

Are vastly superior to the wild plants for all landscape purposes. They grow more easily, quickly form symmetrical, bushy plants covered with glossy, handsome foliage, and their flowers are larger and brighter and come in a brilliant range of color. The strain of our seedlings is so good that we do not hesitate to highly recommend them.
